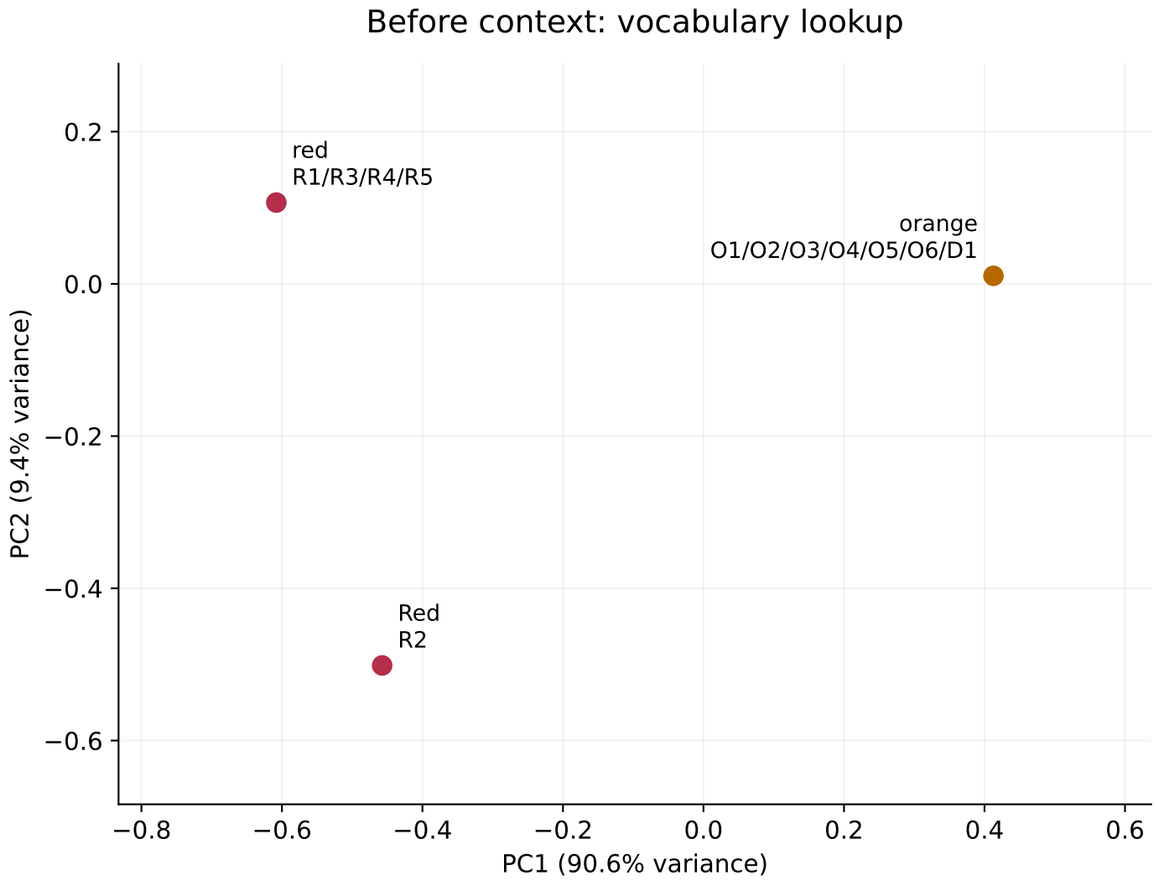
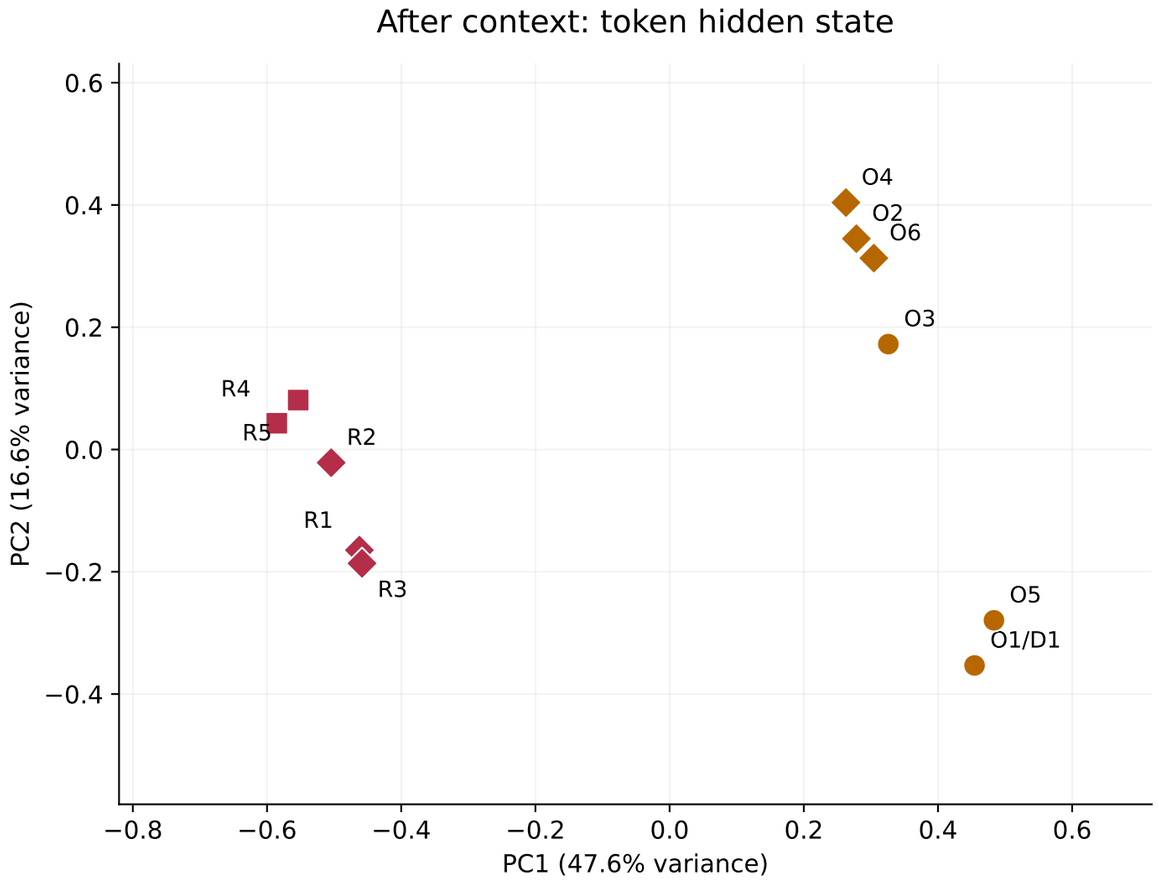
Same word, different context: the vector changes

Nomic v2 MoE · target-token vectors · 768 dimensions · transformer layer 12





Orange markers = “orange” · red markers = “red” | circle = fruit · diamond = colour · square = financial idiom

O1 I drink an orange juice.

O2 The sunset is orange.

O3 She peeled an orange for breakfast.

O4 She painted the wall orange.

O5 The orange juice is sweet.

O6 The orange paint is bright.

R1 I ate a red apple.

R2 Red is my favourite colour.

R3 I ate a red grape.

R4 The business is in the red.

R5 The company is in the red.

D1 I drink an orange juice.

Independent PCA fits: axes cannot be compared across panels. 2D projections distort distances.
Check the full-dimensional cosine matrix. Different vectors alone do not establish different word senses.